

Parents Advocating Student Success

Silver Valley Unified School District is proud to present Parents Advocating Student Success (PASS) classes in the fall of 2017. This is a fun class designed to aide parents in making their students successful in education. A few of the topics the classes will cover are:

Parents' Role in Their Child's Education

Parents Supporting Child's Natural Curiosity

Every Child is Capable of Achieving/Importance of Reading

Creating a Distraction-free Zone at Home

And much, much more!

Parents will have opportunities to gain new insights and share their experiences and be supported. We will also share great educational resources to support parents and students at home. If you have any questions call your student's school office.

Classes will be held at:

Educational Services Center 35320 Daggett-Yermo Rd.

On the following dates and time: Sept. 23, Nov. 18, Jan. 20, March 24 and May 12 from 8am-12noon.

Light refreshments and Spanish translation will be provided each session
